Student Travel Release of Liability

Launch Ministries, Inc. does not provide or facilitate transportation for students and does not monitor how students travel to and from Launch Pad sites. Travel may include walking, driving a car, or riding in a friend's car. Students and parents decide on appropriate travel methods and they may coordinate with other parents (including those parents serving on Booster Club Teams) to help ensure that students who need a ride have a ride. Parents are responsible for monitoring how their students travel to and from Launch Pad sites and for communicating to their students whether they have permission to ride in friend's vehicles.

By signing below, I acknowledge that Launch Ministries does not provide, facilitate, or monitor transportation for students and hereby release and discharge all past, present or future claims and causes of action, including negligence claims, that the registered student and parents and legal guardians of the registered student has or may have against Launch Ministries, Inc., and any related officer, director, member, employee, sponsor, agent and any other person acting by for or through any of them, for any liability, injury, damages, loss, accidents, delay, or irregularity resulting from, arising out of or in any way connected with the above named student's travel to and from any Launch Pad site and any activity associated with Launch Ministries, Inc.
